Many of our delinquent subscribers noticed the pink label on their Expositor last week and came in and squared up. There are others we expect to drop in any day. We would not make this urgent request if we did not need the money.

The Christmas exercises held in the various churches were largely attended and enjoyed as only the holiday gatherings can be. The cantatas, programs, Christmas trees and Santa Claus were all as delightful as usual to the children and older ones too.

The Masonic services held in the M. E. church last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock were attended by a large number of masons and people of our city. Rev. Geach announced to his congregation that it was not his purpose to take a text, but would speak of Masonry as a journey through life. The entered apprentice is described as entering upon that important journey when he seeks admission into a Masonic Lodge.

In his splendid talk Rev. Geach showed the substantial foundation upon which Masonry is built and brought out the many good lessons which are taught. Every person present was much benefited and enjoyed the service to its fullest extent.
